

WICKED FLIES INTO SINGAPORE AND CASTS ITS SPELL!

Singapore to be enchanted as Broadway's biggest blockbuster opens tonight at Marina Bay Sands

WICKED, the international Broadway hit musical, celebrated its Singapore premiere in December at the Grand Theater, Marina Bay Sands. WICKED is "one of the most successful shows in Broadway history" (The New York Times) and now it is Singapore's turn to be enchanted by the award-winning musical and be part of the 30 million people worldwide who have been spellbound by this production.

When WICKED opened on Broadway, it worked its magic on critics and audiences alike. Winner of 35 major awards including a Grammy® and three Tony Awards®, WICKED is the untold story of the witches of Oz. Long before Dorothy drops in, two other girls meet in the Land of Oz, one born with emerald green skin, is smart, fiery and misunderstood. The other is beautiful, ambitious and very popular. WICKED tells the story of their remarkable odyssey, how these two unlikely friends grow to become the Wicked Witch of the West and Glinda the Good.

"The defining musical of the decade."

The New York Times

Currently in its 9th year on Broadway, WICKED's North American and International companies have cumulatively grossed over US$2.5 billion. Since opening at the Gershwin Theatre on Broadway in October 2003, WICKED has regularly broken box office records, grossing more than $US1.6 million a week, and has been seen by nearly 6 million people on Broadway.

"If every musical had the brain, the heart, and the courage of WICKED, Broadway really would be a magical place."

Time Magazine

In London, WICKED had the highest weekly gross in West End history (a record WICKED also holds on Broadway, as well as a North American weekly touring record in both the United States and Canada), and in Tokyo and Stuttgart it again set new box office records. After three years WICKED completed its tour of Australia this year and has been seen by over 1.5million people – which is equivalent to more than 1 in 20 Australians.

"A breathtaking success story of a magnitude that North America has not witnessed since the peak years of The Phantom of the Opera."

Washington Post

Singapore audiences will be treated to unbelievable performances by top-class Australian entertainers. Jemma Rix and Suzie Mathers will play the leading ladies, Elphaba and Glinda. The production will also feature some of Australia's top stage performers, including Bert Newton, Anne Wood, David Harris, Glen Hogstrom, Elisa Colla, and James Smith.

"We are very excited for WICKED to premiere at Marina Bay Sands in Singapore and trust that audiences there will embrace it as warmly as those in North America, the U.K., Japan, Germany, Holland, and Australia," said WICKED producers Marc Platt and David Stone. "It is a testament to the show's storytelling power that audiences from around the globe continue to embrace its universal themes."

BASE Entertainment Asia's Managing Director Milan Rokic says "Enthusiasm for the arrival of WICKED to Singapore has been tremendous. This production is a first class event and we welcome its arrival to Singapore. The set of WICKED on the Grand Theater stage at Marina Bay Sands looks spectacular and the cast have been rehearsing hard in Melbourne, so expect to be wowed by unbelievable performances and dazzled by the thrilling music, the intricate costumes, beautiful lighting and stunning physical production. The production features musical staging by Wayne Cilento and is directed by Lisa Leguillou, based on the original direction by Joe Mantello.
